

CYNGOR CYMUNED DWR COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Minutes of DWR Community Council Meeting held on Tuesday 19 May 2015 in Rudry Parish Hall at 7.30pm

Present: Cllrs. Terry Hall (Chairman), Lynda Lee, Carlton James, Kevin Stanworth, Claire Robinson (Neighbourhood Police) and the Clerk Sally Chick.

Apologies: Cllrs. Chris Allender, Margaret Jones, Emma Lamb & Guy Bowden

Declaration of Interest: None

1. Police Report

There were some problems with fighting at the Maenlwydd following the Point to Point on Saturday evening. This has been reported to the licensing department.

The priority from the Your Voice Police meeting is speeding traffic in the lanes.

There is an initiative to increase coverage by the OWL scheme. Sally offered to send out an email to the community to try to encourage people to sign up.

The mobile police station has stopped but Police are going to try to attend events in the area instead. They attended the last Lunch Club and will try to come to Mother & Toddler Group occasionally. There are also drop in surgeries at Bedwas Station on Mondays between 12-1 and Fridays 4-6pm.

There has been a splurge on off road bikes throughout the area with a further initiative to be carried out during half term week. Any issues should be reported via the 101 telephone number.

2. Minutes of the April meeting

The minutes of the April meeting were taken as read and accepted as a true record.

3. Chairman's Report

Carlton, as retiring Chair said that he felt that it was important for it to be understood that the Community Voice Project was DWR Councils Project and it was disappointing that there was not more support for it from Councillors. He hoped that Councillors would wholeheartedly support the project for the duration of its time.

The Traffic Survey will be taking place in June – date to be confirmed by CCBC this week.

Sally was asked to mail out details of where the Time Credits can be used. ✓

Key thanked Carlton, on behalf of the Council for his hard work as Chairman. ✓

4. Clerks Report

Sally informed Council that the grass cutting / maintenance grant is now due to the Church. ✓

Margaret had sent a written report that the compost toilet is progressing and that the roof should be on shortly.

5. Councillors Reports

There were no new issues reported for the villages.
