Declaration of Interest: Chris Allender – Planning 13/0164/RET

61. The Neighbourhood Police sent a written report reminding us that there have been a number of shed break-ins in the area. Shed alarms are available from the OWL co-ordinator Tracy Paddock, Community Co ordinator, Neighbourhood Watch 02920 852160 or welshhobbit@tesco.net.
62. Minutes of the previous meeting were agreed as a correct record.
63. Chairman's Report – Chris reported that he was seeking legal advice regarding an harassment situation.
64. Grant Applications received from:-
Draethen River Care Group – Council agreed a grant of £350 to the group.
Bedwas Gymnastics Club – Council awarded a grant of £100.
65. Planning:
13/0164/RET Nant Y Cwm Farm Cefn Onn Farm Lane – No objections
13/0181/CLEU Rudry Mill Cottage – No objections
13/0184/FULL Garth Farm Garth Lane – No objections
- Sally to seek quotes from local bus companies to provide a weekly bus to local supermarket from the villages. Council discussed the proposal to stop the evening bus to Rudry and agreed that as figures show only 3 people use it in an average week it could not be kept as a viable option.

66. Councillors discussed the Rudry Walking Festival and it was agreed that a meeting be organised to go over details of the event.
67. Items for next Agenda

Next Meeting date – 30 April 2013.
