Apologies: Community Councillors: Sam Crane

Declaration of Interest:

68. The Neighbourhood Police called in briefly to let us know there were not problems in the area.
69. Fiona and John from the Draethen River Care Group gave a presentation on the work carried out by their group. They have been going for 10 years now and meet monthly to clear the river – over 20 tonnes of debris has been cleared in the 10 years.
70. Minutes of the previous meeting were agreed as a correct record.
71. Chris notified Councillors about the 'white paper' which has been prepared by the Draethen Group – Sally to forward copies to all Councillors.
72. The Urdd Eisteddfod will be coming to Caerphilly in 2015. DWR Councillors have stated that they are happy to support the fund raising for this wherever possible.
73. Grant Application received from Hawthorn Education and Creative Therapy Centre – Councillors agreed that as this is a business we are unable to assist at this time.
73. Reports from Councillors:
 - Draethen – Margaret informed Council that some planning notices have been put up in the area – Council have not been notified of anything. Sally to contact CCBC for information on this.
 - Waterloo – Footpaths are currently being resurfaced.
 - Rudry – Continuing problems with bikes on the Common.

74. Planning:

13/0172/COU Garth Farm Garth Lane Rudry – No Objections

13/0212/NCC Glan Y Nant Draethen – No objections

13/0266/FULL Foresters House Graig Lane Rudry – No objections

75. Items for next Agenda

Next Meeting date – 28 June 2013.
