

DWR Walk/Ride #1

If you look at an aerial map this walk/ride is really defined by two pubs! So, if you are feeling particularly adventurous you can weave in a drink and a bite to eat in both establishments!

You can enter this route from a number of points in DWR, Rudry (opposite the Maenllwyd Inn), Llwyn Celyn Forest Walk (Rudry Road on the way to Lisvane), Graig Road, Rudry (entrance opposite Rudry Common Car Park) or Graig Road, Lisvane (along from the Ty Mawr pub), but whichever way you go you will not be disappointed, the views are SPECTACULAR ranging from dense forestry with a mix of indigenous and evergreen trees, ridgeway views across Cardiff Bay and the Bristol Channel, all the way up through Caerphilly, the Valleys stretching as far as the majestic Brecon Beacons.

You can ride or walk as there are a myriad of connecting bridle routes, paths and roads, so you should arm yourself with a Bridleway or other OS type map, or just use the force!

One word of caution, if you are riding a horse, the route along Graig Road, between Lisvane and Cefn Onn Farm, there is a stretch of concrete that is slippery under hoof so one to avoid in both directions, but not to worry there are plenty of Bridal Paths in this location so easily avoided.

Fig 1 Aerial View

Pictures of entrance points that may or may not be useful!

Fig 1

Rudry – Maenllwyd Junction

Pedestrian Entrance

Fig 2 – From the Maenllwyd Junction, head towards Caerphilly on the main road, approx. 500yards, there is a step-over on the left.

Fig 3 Graig Road – leading to Cefn Onn Farm (road eventually leads to the Ty Mawr Pub, Lisvane)

Figure 4 Graig Road – from the Ty Mawr Pub, head towards Caerphilly (Cefn Onn Farm), approx. 1 mile on the right)

Fig 5 Rudry Road – Llwyn Celyn Forest Walk Entrance

Now for the views!

